Events that are booked well in advance often change considerably and may not work with the original plan.

ADVERTISING / PROMOTIONAL SERVICES

- Please supply the fair office with any of your printed material, posters, discount coupons, and advertisements promoting your event. We often times get telephone inquiries requesting this important information.
- Information about your event may be printed in media releases such as the What’s Happening sections of local newspapers, online media outlets, event schedules and telephone inquiries.
- We will put a message on the Reader Board for your event. Because your event may not be the only event on the grounds on that date, we may have limited space for each to advertise.
- Please write out the message you would like to go on the Reader Board, and we will shorten it if necessary. Maximum of 23 letters per line, 2 lines.
